CENSORS MORE LENIENT ON PETROGRAD PAPERS

PERMIT PUBLICATION OF MANY RASPUTIN STORIES.

MONK'S INFLUENCE GREAT

PETROGRAD (via London), January 4.—A more lenient press censorship has permitted the newspapers here to publish all conceivable versions of the story of the death of the monk, Gregory Rasputin, some of them decorated with the dramatic touches and coloring of an Arabian night's adventure. Comment also is made freely on the life and influence of the dead monk. It is stated that Professor Milukoff and Vladimir N. Furishkevich, vice-president of the Union of True Russians, have received numerous telegrams of appreciation for their action in being first to call the attention of the country to the evil influences at work in the death of Rasputin.

Importance in Russian politics, and says that it is a mistake to regard him as a symbol of conditions in the country or regard his fall as a changing point in the history of the nation. The Rech discusses Rasputin's influence over important officials and names persons, including several ministers, who not only owed their appointment to the monk's patronage, but were in daily contact with him, seeking his advice.

"His counsel was asked in every matter," says the Rech, "and nobody was ashamed to receive from his hand what they wanted to get. But the main thing is not Rasputin himself, but the conditions which made his career possible and allowed such a man to play such an exceptional part. His role was such, in short, that it made it necessary for every resolution recently passed in the duma to contain the phrase, 'dark forces'."

politics. At one drug store in the territory the first petition drawn up has been filled with names and another copy of the petition has been placed for patrons of the line.

A drug store manager at Forty-second street and College avenue said that he believed 1,000 names would be signed to the petitions in his store in the next few days. Petitions have been placed at Forty-second street and College avenue, in three stores, and others have been placed at Thirty-eighth street and College avenue and at Forty-eighth street and College avenue.

FOUND ON CANAL BANK. Colored Woman Had Been Rescued from Burning House.

Mrs. Mamie McKittrick, colored, age seventy, who has been an invalid for some time, was found lying on the bank of the canal by two patrolmen last night, about thirty minutes after she had been rescued from a fire in her home, 606 Myrtle street.

INCOME EXEMPTION RULING. All Persons Earning $4,000 and Maintaining Dependents Are Affected.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—Treasury department officials have ruled that the $4,000 exemption from the income tax law granted to heads of families applies not only to married persons, but to others maintaining dependents over whom they exercise "family control."

WOMAN CENSORED FOR PART ARMY SCANDAL. MRS. WILLIAM CORNWALLIS-WEST WIELDED GREAT POWER.

LONDON, January 4.—Severe official censure for Mrs. Cornwallis-West, wife of Colonel William Cornwallis-West and mother of the princess of Wales and the duchess of Westminster, is expressed in the report of a court of inquiry which has just been held to the public a story of the influence which this prominent society woman wielded over high army officers.

LONG FIGHT WINS FREEDOM. Herman Bilik, Once Condemned to Death, Gets Pardon.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., January 4.—Governor Dunne has granted a pardon to Herman Bilik, who, in June, 1907, was sentenced in Cook county to be hanged for the murder of Mary Veral. Previous to the death sentence had been committed to life imprisonment.

Daughter to Marry Vzal. JOLIET, Ill., January 4.—An unusual romance came to light here when news was received at the state penitentiary that Herman Bilik had been pardoned. It was to the effect that Bilik's daughter Edna will marry Jerry Vzal, whose testimony was largely responsible for Bilik's conviction and whose retraction of that testimony brought about Bilik's pardon.

An Understandable Statement

We owed to Depositors December 27, 1916..... $ 12,986,612.26

A conservative banker always has this indebtedness in mind and so arranges his assets as to be able to meet all requests by his depositors for payment.

For meeting all such requests we have assets as follows:

I—Cash $ 4,988,679.35

This is either in our own vault or on deposit with other banks where we can get it on demand.

II—Demand Collateral Loans $ 1,377,120.40

This is the amount we have lent to people who have given us their notes promising to repay at the end of a period—usually five years—and have secured us by mortgaging real estate worth at least twice the loans.

III—Real Estate Loans $ 2,485,713.74

This is the amount we have lent to people who have given us their notes promising to repay at the end of a period—usually five years—and have secured us by mortgaging real estate worth at least twice the loans.

IV—Bonds and Stocks $ 5,566,366.48

These are salable securities issued by the U. S. or municipalities or railroads or other corporations of first quality.

V—Advances to Trusts $ 526,273.16

When an estate is turned over to us in trust we hold ourselves in readiness to make advances for its better administration, provided always the amount advanced is well within half the value of the estate.

VI—Due from Departments $ 31,558.91

For example, in our rental department we may advance money for repairs and reimburse ourselves when the next rent comes in.

Total Assets with which to meet our Indebtedness. $ 14,925,712.04

This Leaves a Surplus of $ 1,939,099.78

which becomes the property of our stockholders after the indebtedness to our depositors has been paid. It is a guaranty fund, composed of capital, surplus and profits, on which we base our invitation to this community to entrust to us its money in savings accounts or checking accounts or on certificates of deposit.

Jiffy-Jell

The Supreme Dessert

A New-Grade Gelatine Dessert, with Fruit-Juice Flavors In Sealed Vials

Get Your Free Package

Cut Out Our Magazine Coupon

To All Women

Many women's magazines for January and February contain a full-page ad on Jiffy-Jell in color. Each ad contains a coupon, good at your grocery for a full size package free.

Cut out the coupon and present it to your grocer. We will pay him for the package that he gives you.

We are making this offer in millions of homes, to let Jiffy-Jell tell its own story. Just serve it for one dinner as our treat.

A Delightful Surprise

Jiffy-Jell will prove a delightful surprise. It is made of a rare-grade gelatine, costing twice as much as the common.

The flavors are made from the fruit itself. They are made by concentrating the fresh fruit juice. They are very different from artificial flavors.

Then each flavor comes sealed in a vial. It keeps its freshness until used.

Home of Jiffy-Jell

Flavors which come mixed with the gelatine powder never keep their zest, as these do.

Then the boiling water, used to dissolve Jiffy-Jell, doesn't scald the flavor. The flavor is added from the vial when the jell has partly cooled.

So you get in Jiffy-Jell the flavor of fruit that is newly picked. You never have tasted a jelly dessert that compares with it.

First Dinner Free

If you present the coupon you will get your first serving free. It will give you a new conception of these ideal fruit desserts. It will bring you an extra-grade gelatine, the finest you ever tasted. It will bring you fruit flavors which taste like crushed fruit. It will open the way to countless new delights.

Jiffy-Jell comes in seven flavors—Raspberry, Strawberry, Cherry, Orange, Lemon, Lime and Pineapple. The price when you buy it is two packages for 25c. A package makes 6 or 8 dishes.

Boasted of Her Power.

The court of inquiry, which consisted of Field Marshal Sir William Nicholson, formerly chief of the general staff; Major-General Lord Cheylesmore, Justice Sir James Richard Aikin and the Hon. Donald MacLean, member of parliament for Peebles and Selkirk, reports regarding Mrs. Cornwallis-West.

"We have no doubt that her injudicious boasting of the power she wielded at the war office, which was confirmed to an appreciable extent by the wording of some of Sir John Cowan's letters, was calculated to bring him and the administration at the war office into disrepute. We feel obliged to record our opinion that this lady's conduct, as revealed in this case, has been highly discreditable both in her behavior toward Second Lieutenant Barrett, before his letter of the 14th of February, in her vindictive attempts to injure him afterward and in the untruthful evidence she gave before us."

The court also investigated reports that General Owen Thomas, who took a prominent part in recruiting in Wales, was transferred from the command of a Welsh brigade to a lesser command through Mrs. Cornwallis-West's influence. This proved to be unfounded, but due to an unfortunate sequence of events and the ambiguous wording of certain official letters.

Contrary to Regulations. The report says that Colonel Wayne Edwards reflected on General Thomas, who is a brigade commander, in a letter to Mrs. Cornwallis-West, "with the apparent object of exalting his own qualifications for post of same." Mrs. Cornwallis-West sent the letter to General Cowan, with a postscript, which he forwarded to Lieutenant-General Sir William Pitt Rivers, of the war office, advising him to keep an eye on Edwards, and expressing a high opinion of him.

The report calls attention to the fact that it is contrary to the regulations for a war office official to enter into private correspondence on official matters, and also says: "Regret is expressed that a letter sent by Lord French to the war office was so ambiguously worded as to be capable of misconstruction. In any case, a portion of the letter was in the nature of an adverse report on Brigadier-General Owen Thomas, and should have been communicated to that officer at the time. It is also regarded as unfortunate that Lord French should have concurred in the terms of the war office letter of July 29, to Brigadier-General Thomas, which letter must have confirmed the latter's suspicion of sinister influence."

Mrs. Cornwallis-West is the eldest daughter of the late Frederick, Earl of Patrick and Lady Olivia, who was a daughter of the second marquis of Headfort. She was married to William Cornwallis-West, of Ruthin castle, County Denbigh, who has been lord lieutenant of Denbighshire since 1872, and is honorary colonel of the Fourth battalion of Royal Welsh Fusiliers.

Their son, George Frederick Myddelton, married in 1900 Jennie, widow of Lord Randolph Churchill, and daughter of second Viscount, of New York. Lady Randolph Churchill is the mother of Winston Spencer Churchill, formerly first lord of the admiralty. She divorced George Cornwallis-West in 1914, whereupon he married Mrs. Patrick Campbell, the actress.

Owing to the prestige of the Vocation many people believe it is beyond their reach in price. You can secure an Aeolian-Vocation as low as $35.
